The South is suffering considerably from the floods.

It is now a felony to keep a gambling house in this state.

The Legislature last week passed a bill requiring that teachers of Common Schools be paid monthly.

Secretary Manning is improving. It is said that he will resign his position in the Cabinet within thirty days.

It is now said that State Senator A. S. Berry, of Newport, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of this State next year.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

This is the ninety-fifth day of the legislative session and what has the State got for it? A hole in the Treasury where the money used to be.—Courier-Journal.

Dr. Rose, of Palmyra, O., has perfected a long-distance telephone transmitter, by use of which the faintest whisper is said to have been heard over a circuit of 878 miles. As this occurred in Ohio, honest people will make the necessary allowances in the computation of the distance.—Courier Journal.

Another New County Wanted.

If the Legislature has no objection, we have about fifty acres of fine marsh land out here a piece which we would like very much to incorporate as a new county. No name has been decided on but you may call it Billread, Bartjenkins, Bobtyle, Samburdett, Samunn, Jimwinn, Speakerofhutt, Damfino—anything you please so you fix it up as a new county.

"We, the citizens, would be satisfied if the laws of Kentucky would place the convicts at constructing railroads, canals, and levees, and abolish the act authorizing working them in coal mines."

The foregoing extract is from the "demands" made by the miners and citizens at Greenwood. To retain the sympathy of the public, Labor must be just in its demands; and, certainly, if it be injustice to the miners to displace them with convicts, it would be equal injustice to displace laborers on railroads, canals and levees, and fill their places with the inmates of the penitentiary. If the miners at Greenwood seek justice, they must be prepared to do justice; not to seek their own relief at the expense of other classes of labor.—Covington Commonwealth.

At Fort Worth, Texas, an effort was made Saturday to take out a train over the Missouri Pacific road. Sheriff Maddox, with twenty armed deputies, guarded the train, while 1,500 persons had assembled owing to the Sheriff's threat "that he would send the train out or die." Two miles south of the city, the posse was attacked and a regular battle ensued, about 100 shots being fired, resulting in the killing outright of special officer Sneed, and the fatal wounding of special officers Fulford and Townsend. Three of the attacking party were thought to have been wounded also. The train returned to Fort Worth carrying the killed and wounded officers. One in position to know, states that "no train will be allowed to pass over the Missouri Pacific until the demand of the strikers for arbitration has been acceded to."—Courier-Journal.

The Frankfort Capital summarizes the provisions of the bill, passed by both Houses of the Legislature, to regulate examining trial in the State. The bill provides that county judges shall have an examining court, exclusive jurisdiction in all cases of homicide; trial to be held at the county seat of the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed. Persons charged as above shall first be taken before the county judge, if absent or disqualified, then before the magistrate living nearest the county seat, or before the police judge of the county town; if both magistrate and police judge are absent or cannot preside, then any other magistrate may act as an examining judge. One justice may constitute an examining court, except in cases above named—one justice shall not except the county judge are nearest magistrate cannot do so. The act not to be construed as limiting the jurisdiction of the county judge to homicide. County judge shall receive no fee for examining trials. Other judges two dollars for first and one dollar for each additional day, in no case exceeding four dollars for one trial. Nothing in this act shall deprive any police judge, mayor, or city judge of any jurisdiction they now have in regard to holding examining courts. Takes effect from passage of the bill.—Owenboro Inquirer.

Consulting on Cleveland.

Myron Bangs is a man of character and position up in the interior of New York. He has banks and is generally a man of affairs. He is a Stalwart and also a warm friend of Mr. Conkling. He has been down here visiting the lawyer and statesman. He admires and talks unreservedly of his interview with the ex-Senator. "Mr. Conkling," says Mr. Bangs, "takes the ground that, in the present differences between the President and Senate, the legislative body will get defeated. Mr. Conkling declares that Mr. Cleveland is a man of iron and great determination—in fact, a second Andrew Jackson in courage. He thinks," so Mr. Bangs says "that not only the Senate, but the country has under-rated Mr. Cleveland's strength of character and intellect." Mr. Bangs reports Mr. Conkling as saying that in his judgment the Senate cannot maintain its position and must yield or be involved in a constant controversy with the Executive during the balance of his administration. Considering the relations of the two men, this is regarded as authentic testimony as to Mr. Conkling's position upon the interesting question now pending between the legislative and executive branches of the government.

Be Warned

In time. Kidney diseases may be prevented by purifying, rendering, and invigorating the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. When, through debility, the action of the kidneys is perverted, these organs rob the blood of its needed constituent, albumen, which is passed off in the urine, while worn out matter, which they should carry off from the blood, is allowed to remain. By the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the kidneys are restored to proper action, and Albumenuria, or is prevented. Ayer's Sarsaparilla also prevents inflammation of the kidneys, and other disorders of these organs. Mrs. Jas. W. Weld, Forest Hill St., Jamaica Plain, Mass., writes: "I have had a complication of diseases, but my greatest trouble has been with my kidneys. Four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla made me feel like a new person, as well and strong as ever." W. M. McDonald, 46 Summer St., Boston, Mass., had been troubled for years with kidney complaint. By the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, he not only the disease from assuming a fatal form, but was restored to perfect health. John McLellan, cor. Bridge and Third sts., Lowell, Mass., writes: "For several years I suffered from Dyspepsia and Kidney Complaint, the latter being so severe at times that I could scarcely attend to my work. My appetite was poor, and I was much emaciated; but by using my appetite and digestion improved, and my health has been perfectly restored."
